1. DLBC is a Christian camp. Therefore, we ask all campers and staff to seek to HONOR CHRIST in conduct, speech, and all other ways. Please bear in mind that, as a BIBLE CAMP, our desire is to be pleasing to God

3. RESPECT one another, camp buildings, and equipment. For maximum enjoyment, get to know the other campers and staff as quickly as possible.

Any camper who leaves the grounds without permission from parents/guardian and the director is subject to being sent home with no refund.
5. Report all illnesses and injuries to your cabin counselor immediately. The camp nurse will be in charge of all decisions made for treatment. NO MEDICATIONS are allowed in the cabins at any given time, with inhalers being the exception. 7. Learn the camp SCHEDULE quickly. Respond promptly to all bells and attend all camp activities.
8. Campers and staff are expected to dress appropriately for the various activities (meals, games, swimming, chapel, etc). Sometimes the things we wear and the way that we wear them can communicate things about us that we don't intend and can also be a great distraction to others.
9. DLBC is not responsible for damage to or loss of any items of great value you might bring to camp.
10. Campers and staff will not be permitted to have access to the telephone, except in case of emergency. In that case, the director will be responsible for the call. If in case of illness or injury, the camp nurse will be responsible to call home. Staff personal calls shall be calling card/collect calls only and made when free of other responsibilities.
11. Your assigned cabin is your home for the week. Do not enter another cabin without the counselor's permission. In cases of emergency it is important to be with your cabin so that we can account for you.

Your camp director and staff have been chosen by the DLBC Board/Committees, and have agreed to represent Deeper Life Bible Camp, Inc. in ministering to campers. All campers and staff must respect and follow the directors leadership. This policy will be enforced through the last moment of your camping session.

The director shall have the responsibility of discipline:

For the safety of all campers and staff, DLBC is patrolled by security staff and the Beltrami County Sheriff's Department through-out the sleeping hours and as needed at other times.

I have read the above rules and policies, and with God's help I plan to respect and abide by them.
